

President Golden Masonic Temple Association (Friendship Court No. 7) Golden

How many persons can be present in your lodge/temple

50

Square footage of lodge/temple

22000 square feet for the entire build: fellowship hall, lodge room, attic.

Fellowship hall: 3500 square feet, excluding kitchen

Lodge room: 3060 square feet.

This is only the lodge room itself. Excluding Stage, storage rooms, hallways, preparation room, and taylor's room.

196 seats along sidelines (3 rows).

What the lodge/temple is doing for disinfecting standards

We have hand sanitizer and bleach stations to clean tables/chairs.

Are your lodge/temples keeping track of temperatures of persons entering along with keeping a log of names.

Temple Board is not tracking temperatures. This is the responsibility of the organization that using the temple.

Are social distancing rules (as per the county in which the lodge/temple is located) able to be maintained if your court held a meeting

The 6-foot distance rule can be maintained.

Is the lodge/temple allowing persons that do not belong to that said lodge/temple/court etc. attend functions at your lodge/temple

Our lodge is not open to the public in general. Only those associated with the fraternal organization are allowed.

Is your lodge/temple allowing for food and beverage to be served from the members and or catered

Yes.

Are masks being worn by all patrons to abide by the Governors mandate

Yes.

Ryan Puckett

President Golden Masonic Temple Association