

Grand Court of Colorado

Order of the Amaranth Inc.

About US: The Grand Court of Colorado, Order of the Amaranth

The Order of the Amaranth is a social, fraternal, and charitable organization whose membership is open to both men and women with a Masonic affiliation. The teachings of our ritual impart lessons for daily living, character building, morality, and ethics. Membership in the Order of the Amaranth is a privilege; it provides opportunity, not only for service but also for self-improvement. The Order brings a gift of special fraternal friendship among its members. The welfare and support of our members is of vital concern to their fellow members - it is deemed a privilege to assist another member in need. Although belief in the existence of a Supreme Being is requisite for membership, the Organization is not a religious organization. Many faiths are represented among our membership.

The Grand Court of Colorado, Order of the Amaranth was established in 1946. Currently there are eight subordinate courts on Colorado, constituting the Grand Court of Colorado. These Courts can be found in Denver, Aurora, Golden, Westminster, East Lake, Greeley, Colorado Springs and Florence.

Colorado Grand Court and all Subordinate Courts actively participate in raising funds for Diabetes Research. To date, COLORADO has raised over $500,000 for the research and treatment of Diabetes!